

DISCLAIMER: Please note that this document is provided for reference only. When preparing for an accreditation activity, please always use the version found in your CanAMS profile instrument. Should you need assistance, contact your PGME office.

Curriculum Plan [Template - with example]

CanMEDS Role	Objective(s)	How Learned / Taught						How Assessed
		Academic Curriculum	Microscopic sign-out Rotation	Preparation Lab Rotation	Quality Assurance Rotation	Rapid on-site evaluation Rotation	[Add additional rows as needed]	Assignment (research/scholarly project)	In-Training Evaluation Report	Oral and slide exams	Multisource feedback tool	[Add additional columns as needed]
Medical Expert	[Insert applicable objectives]	X	X			X			X	X
	[Add additional rows as needed]
Communicator	[Insert applicable objectives]
	[Add additional rows as needed]
Collaborator	[Insert applicable objectives/competencies]
	[Add additional rows as needed]
Leader	[Insert applicable objectives/competencies]
	[Add additional rows as needed]
Health Advocate	[Insert applicable objectives/competencies]
	[Add additional rows as needed]
Scholar	[Insert applicable objectives/competencies]
	[Add additional rows as needed]
Professional	[Insert applicable objectives/competencies]
	[Add additional rows as needed]

Within these cells under "How learned/Taught", insert applicable teaching methods (e.g. Y rotation/learning experience, in-class)

Within these cells under "How Assessed", insert applicable assessment methods (e.g. ITER)

Use an "X" to identify which learning/teaching and assessment methods are applicable to each of the identified objectives/competency.

Use an "X" to identify which assessment methods are applicable to each of the identified objectives/competency.